

The diagram illustrates the layout boundaries of a page. It features a solid blue rectangular border representing the 'MARGIN'. Surrounding this is a dashed magenta rectangular border representing the 'BLEED' area. The space between the blue and magenta borders represents the 'TRIM' area. A legend at the bottom left identifies these three regions with colored dots: grey for BLEED, magenta for TRIM, and blue for MARGIN.

● BLEED    ● TRIM    ● MARGIN